Award-winning journalist Larry Alexander to discuss his most recent book!

To commemorate Veteran's Day, the Milanof-Schock Library invites you to attend a presentation given by award-winning journalist and lifelong Lancaster County resident Larry Alexander on November 9 at 6:30 pm. The presentation will discuss his most recent book, "In the Footsteps of the Band of Brothers: A Return to Easy Company's Battlefields with Sgt. Forrest Guth". Alexander's 60-minute slide presentation will describe his travels through England and Europe with Sgt. Forrest Guth, of the famed Band of Brothers, as they retraced the footsteps taken by the courageous Band of Brothers across their most famous battlefields.

Larry Alexander is a columnist for Lancaster Newspapers and the author of three books: "Biggest Brother: The Life of Major Dick Winters, the Man Who Led the Band of Brothers," which became a national best seller, "Shadows In the Jungle: The Alamo Scouts Behind Japanese Lines in World War II" and "In the Footsteps of the Band of Brothers: A Return to Easy Company's Battlefields With Sgt. Forrest Guth."

Registration is required and seating is limited, so call 653-1510 to reserve your place.
